Paris, December 7.

ON the 4th Inſtant the Parliament aſſembled at Pontoiſe, after ſome Debate came to a Reſolution to regiſter the King's Letters Patents concerning the Accommodation of the Biſhops about the Pope's Conſtitution; the Terms of which regiſtring are, That the ſaid Letters Patents ſhall be executed with the ſame Proviſos, Clauſes, and Conditions mentioned in the regiſtring of the Letters Patents of 1714, and agreeably to the Rules of the Church, and the Maxims of this Kingdom concerning the Authority of the Church, the Power and Juriſdiction of the Biſhops, the Acceptation of the Pope's Bulls, and the Appeals to a future General Council; which Rules and Maxims ſhall remain in their Force and Vertue; and all Suits and Proceedings on account of any Appeals ſhall ceaſe. The firſt Preſident diſpatched his Secretary with this News to Court, and his Royal Highneſs ſent that Night an Expreſs to Rome with Advice of it. 'Tis expected that the Parliament will now ſoon be recalled to Paris. On the 6th Inſtant a Jew named Joſeph Levy was broke upon the Wheel, for having robbed and murdered another Jew and his Wife. The Turkiſh Ambaſſadour to this Court, Mehemet Effendi, arrived at Toulon the 23d paſt, where he keeps Quarantain without the City in the King's Garden. Yeſterday the King of Spain's Miniſter at this Court, received by an Expreſs diſpatched from Madrid the 22d paſt, the following Relation.

ON the 15th of November at Day-Break, the Marqueſs de Lede, Commander in Chief of the Spaniſh Forces in Africa, cauſed the Gallies to approach the Shore by Ceuta, as near as poſſible to the Camp and Trenches of the Moors, and to cannonade them. Some Hours after, the Marqueſs advancing with his Troops by Land, attacked thoſe Trenches. They were guarded by 14000 Foot, and about 3000 Horſe which it is ſaid were of the King of Mequinez's Guards, and were all cloathed in White. After a Fight of ſeveral Hours the Spaniards carried the Trenches, and made themſelves Maſters of the Camp, taking 3 Standards, and one Colours, a Braſs Mortar for Bombs, 21 Pieces of Cannon, part Braſs, the reſt Iron, 3000 Bullets of different Sizes, 200 Bombs, a great Number of Tools for throwing up Ground, a great Quantity of Oats and Meal which was diſtributed among the Troops, ſome Tents, ſeveral Mules and Horſes, and other Things. The Number of Moors killed in the Camp was reckoned to be above 3000: The Baſhaw being very dangerouſly wounded, retired with the reſt of his Army towards Tetuan, taking with him the Horſe-Tail. The Number of Priſoners was not great, becauſe the Moors refuſed Quarter, and thoſe who retired fled with the greateſt Precipitation: The Baſhaw's Secretary is among the Priſoners. On our Side no more than 150 were wounded, and about 50 killed; among the former is the Chevalier de Lede, Brother of the Marqueſs, who was ſhot with a Musket-Ball that went in at his Mouth and out at his Neck; which which Wound is however judged curable; and among the latter are three Captains and two Lieutenants. The Reſiſtance made by the Moors in this Action was very obſtinate, for having been four Times broken they rallied and made head again more reſolutely every time than the former; particularly the Baſhaw diſtinguiſhed himſelf; and our Men gave ſignal Proofs of their Valour on this Occaſion. The Moors were lodged in Barracks built of Wood that formed a kind of Town, in the midſt of which the Baſhaw had for his Quarters ſeveral Apartments, all communicating with each other by a great Number of Doors and Paſſages like a Labyrinth; where the Marqueſs de Lede has taken up his own Quarters for the preſent, and his Troops have theirs in the conquered Camp and Trenches. Immediately after the Action was over, his Excellency diſpatched firſt the Count of Carvacal who arrived laſt Night, and after him the Viſcount Francici Captain of the Friezland Regiment of Dragoons who came hither this Morning with the three Standards and the Colours; and the Particulars abovementioned were brought by theſe Officers, who ſay, that in this vigorous Action the Moors behaved with great Skill, like the moſt regular Troops, being commanded by Renegado Officers of determined Courage. The News of this Victory was immediately made publick, the Bells of the Royal Church were rung above an Hour, and this Morning Te Deum was ſung in the Preſence of their Majeſties, attended by the whole Court in ſplended Habits, for a Succeſs ſo much deſired, the Barbarians having at length been forced to raiſe a Siege which had laſted twenty ſix Years.

Hague, Dec. 6. This Morning the Earl of Cadogan and the Lord Carteret went from hence for Helvoetſluys, in order to imbark for England.

Whitehall, December 2.

We have an Account, that on the 26th paſt in the Evening the Captain of His Majeſty's Ship the Monk, took the Advantage of the High Water to get the Ship in through Yarmouth Roads, and brought her to an Anchor about two Miles to the South of the Peer; but on the 27th the Water increaſing, and finding no Poſſibility of ſaving her, with the Opinion of the Pilots the Officers ran her aſhore about a Mile to the South of Golſton, and have been ſince employed in ſaving her Stores and Proviſions.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to nominate Dr. Francis Hutchinſon, to be Biſhop of Down and Connor in the Kingdom of Ireland, in the Room of Dr. Edward Smith deceaſed.

Whitehall, December 3.

It having been repreſented to His Majeſty, That Thomas Brown, Maſter of the Chitty Frigate, from Velez Malaga, coming into the River of Thames ſome Days ago, had impoſed upon Captain Steuart, Commander of His Majeſty's Ship the Wincheſter, which lies at the Nore to oblige Merchant Ships homeward bound from Places within the Limits directed by the Proclamations to perform Quarantain, by aſſerting That he was only come from Cadiz, by which Means he was ſuffered to paſs up the River, but that the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers at Woolwich finding his Lading to be ſhipped from the aforeſaid Port of Velez Malaga, ordered him with his Ship back to the River of Medway to perform Quarantain; His Majeſty has been pleaſed to give Order for proſecuting the ſaid Thomas Brown with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law, for ſuch his Offence.
